FOLK MUSICIAN-TEACHER ELLA JENKINS
TO PRESENT CHILDREN'S CONCERT AT UM JULY 8

MISSOULA--

Ella Jenkins, known to teachers and parents throughout the U.S. for her contributions to the teaching and enjoyment of folk music and rhythmic activities for children, will present a children's concert at 8 p.m. Monday, July 8, in the University of Montana Music Recital Hall.

Monday's program, which is open to children, parents and the general public without charge, is sponsored by the UM Campus Recreation Department and Head Start Training Office.

Miss Jenkins' recordings and teaching methods are used in many preschool programs and in elementary and high schools. She has presented her "Adventures in Rhythm" workshops several times on the Missoula campus in recent years. In 1972 she presented similar workshops at Flathead Valley Community College, Kalispell. Since 1956 Miss Jenkins has devoted her time to folk singing, teaching on Latin-American percussion instruments and conducting the workshops.
